United States Supreme Court Appoints Board of Arbitration

WASHINGTON, June 11—Differences between the engineers and the railroads east of Chicago which a few weeks ago threatened a strike, are to be settled by a board of arbitration appointed by Chief Justice White of the United States Supreme court; Charles P. Neill, United States commissioner of labor, and Judge Knapp of the court of commerce.

The board is composed of Oscar Straus, former secretary of commerce and labor; Dr. Albert Shaw, editor of the American Review of Reviews; Otto Filditz, former chairman of the Building Trades Employers association of New York; Frederick N. Judson, lawyer, of St. Louis; Dr. Charles H. Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin; Daniel Ward, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad; P. M. Morrissey, former president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

FIXED UP SCHEDULE

B. & M. Management and Tarinmen Reach Agreement.

Conductors and trainmen of the Boston & Maine railroad have made a new agreement with the company, by which 4,000 men will enjoy better conditions than heretofore. The substance of the agreement has not been made public. More than 300 specifications are included in the new agreement, which has been signed by Charles E. Lee, general superintendent of the road, and a joint committee of 42 members of the union. O. J. Halloran, the chairman of this committee, in referring to the amicable nature of the negotiations, expressed his regret that the officials of the Boston Elevated company cannot adopt the methods of the steam railroads and deal with the committee.

GIOVINNI GIVEN SENTENCE OF TWO YEARS

Rocked Boat at Epping Causing Death of Companion

At the special session of the superior court held at Exeter on Monday Giovanni Ceruti of Epping, indicted last October for manslaughter in having caused the death of Vincenzo Baldini at Epping, July 3, 1911, by drowning, received a state prison sentence of from two to four years.

Judge Robert G. Pike had been considering the case since May 10, when Ceruti retracted a former plea, and pleaded guilty of manslaughter in the second degree.

Certi Giovanni of Epping, who was sentenced by Judge Pike in the supreme court at Exeter on Monday to four years in state prison, was taken there today by Sheriff Spinney. Giovanni was found guilty of manslaughter in the second degree in rocking a boat which capsized and resulted in the death of Vincenzo Baldini in pond near the brick yards of that town. Giovanni has already passed nearly two years in jail.

PRESIDENT WINS ALL INDIANA DELEGATES

Roosevelt Supporters Surprised at Weakness of Cases in View of Claim Made by Dixon

CHICAGO, June 11—By the unanimous vote of the Republican National committee today the Taft delegates-at-large from Indiana were ordered seated in the coming Republican National convention over the Roosevelt delegates-at-large, who contested their seats.

In addition to the four delegates-at-large the Taft men were seated from the 1st, 2d and 13th districts which were contested. The contest in the 4th district was abandoned by the Roosevelt men. That brought the steam roller record up to 84 Roosevelt men flattened out to date and the work will be resumed tomorrow.

DISTURBED AT SHOWING

One of yesterday's victims of the Taft steam roller was no less a personage than ex-Senator Albert Jeremiah Beveridge who headed the Roosevelt delegation-at-large from the Hoosier state. Incidentally the action of the committee resurrected politically ex-Vice-President Charles Warren Fairbanks and ex-United States Senator James W. Hemenway of the same state, who have been forcibly kept in the background by the Progressive element of the party of late. Mr. Fairbanks is a Taft delegate-at-large and Mr. Hemenway a district delegate.

On the suggestion of Senator Crane the California cases were disposed of by putting 24 of the Roosevelt delegates on the temporary roll of the convention and postponing until Wednesday the contest in the San Francisco district which Taft carried but whose delegates were denied the certificate of election by the Secretary of state. There had been rumors that the committee would unseat the Roosevelt delegates because they were elected at large instead of by districts.

STRATHAM CITIZENS WANT ELECTRIC ROAD

Will Endeavor to Have it Run as Far as Stratham Hill Park

The residents of Stratham and Greenland, now that the people of this city and Greenland have taken steps to continue the Portsmouth and Exeter railroad as far as Greenland, are to make a strong effort to have the road continue as far as Stratham Hill park.

With this end a conference has been arranged to take place between President Belden and a committee composed of residents of Stratham. It is their intention of trying to lease that portion of the road for a term of years.

NEW SPEED MARKS SET FOR REPLACING TIRES

All the Cars But One in 500 Mile Indianapolis Speedway Race Equipped With Michels.

One of the interesting features of the Memorial day race of 500-miles at the Indianapolis speedway was the rapid manner in which tires were changed. With one exception all the cars to finish were equipped with Michels tires. One Michels was changed on the winning National in thirty seconds hardly giving Dawson, the driver, time to get a drink of water.

Two men in the press stand timed a change on DePalma's car in thirty-three seconds, and if this is true another speed record was established.

The Michels company has followed racing closely and with marked success. Tires must wear out in the strain of a 500-mile race in which cars are traveling at a speed of eighty miles an hour, but it is no less significant that the winning cars in long distance races are nearly always appointed with Michels.

THAT GRAND TRUNK PETITION

The Grand Trunk's petition to the Supreme court of the State of New Hampshire for a location of its road showed that it was to run from White River Junction to Concord and from Concord down the Merrimack Valley to the State line and thence into Boston. This filed location comes no nearer Portsmouth than the city of Lowell, Mass.

There is no application by the Grand Trunk in the State of New Hampshire to build a railroad that comes within forty miles of Portsmouth. The Grand Trunk Railroad is evidently ignoring Rockingham County and the city and harbor of Portsmouth.

SHRINERS HAVE A FINE TIME AT CONCORD

CONCORD, June 10.—Bekdash temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., William Dwight Chandler, potentate, set two new marks at the ceremonial session at Phoenix hall, this afternoon in the attendance of nobles, and in the number of novices who followed the Arab patrol in the long march across the burning sands of the desert to Mecca, the class numbering more than 100.

The nobles came from all sections of the state and what made the gathering more pleasant to all concerned was the bringing of their ladies with them to enjoy the entertainment arranged in their honor at the Auditorium in the evening, with dainty Alice Lloyd in "Little Miss Fix-It" as the stellar attraction.

The larger part of the visiting nobles came to Concord on the regular trains during the forenoon and early afternoon, while those from the eastern section came on a special running via Dover and Portsmouth, leaving Dover at 11.30 a. m., Portsmouth at 12 m., and arriving here at 2.15 p. m.

On their arrival at Masonic temple the ladies were received by the committees appointed to entertain them, during the ceremonial session and at lunch in the banquet hall which was served at 4 p. m.

Those Who Entertained.

The general committee on entertainment included: Noble Arthur C. Stewart, chairman; Ill. Noble Frank P. Quimby, Ill. Noble Elmer D. Goodwin, Ill. Noble William F. Ray, Noble George W. Ellsworth, Noble George W. Bunker, Noble Carlos H. Foster.

The ladies who assisted were: Mrs. Arthur C. Stewart, Mrs. George W. Bunker, Mrs. Carlos H. Foster, Mrs. Elmer D. Goodwin, Mrs. William D. Chandler, Mrs. George H. Rolfe, Mrs. George D. Waldron, Mrs. Charles R. Donning, Mrs. Harry M. Cheney, Mrs. Alvin B. Cross, Mrs. Water G. Afton, Mrs. Chancy Adams, Mrs. John Vanover, Mrs. Louis J. Rudolph, Mrs. Benjamin H. Orr, Mrs. Fred E. French, Mrs. Clarence M. Brooks, Mrs. Clarence S. Copeland, Mrs. Benjamin F. Foster, Mrs. Charles W. Howard, Mrs. Frederick H. Gerry, Mrs. Fred L. Johnson, Mrs. Charles W. Dammun, Mrs. George A. Maxham, Mrs. William T. Entwistle, Mrs. Wil-ham P. Lang, Mrs. Stibel P. Dearborn, Mrs. George H. Kelley, Mrs. Fred Sargent, Mrs. William P. Ray, Mrs. Bert L. Stebbins, Mrs. William E. Peck, Mrs. William F. Butler, Jr., Mrs. Hiram W. Gardner, Mrs. George H. Calley, Mrs. Henry W. Boutwell.

During the lunch music was furnished by Haiseld's full orchestra.

The Ceremonial Session.

The ceremonial session was held in Phoenix hall at 3 o'clock when the petitions were received from the numerous novices, the ballot taken and as the program put it, "all the machinery started to establish the theory of the survival of the fittest—taking those duly elected for the raw material."

Many new and original stunts were evolved by the Arab Patrol to culminate the novices on their long hike across the desert and during it all "Yankee Doodle" the celebrated mummy presented to Lu Lu Temple of Washington, D. C., by the khedive of Egypt and kindly loaned to Bekdash by W. Freeland Kendrick, potentate, on the solicitation of the potentate of Bekdash on his recent visit to Los Angeles looked on and pronounced the work good.

The March to the Theatre.

At 6.30 the ladies were taken to a position near the post office, from which point they reviewed the nobles as they passed up the street on parade on their way to the Auditorium.

The line was formed in front of Masonic temple, and was headed by Novice's Second Infantry band and the Arab Patrol, clad in full evening dress with white vests and wearing their fezzes and followed by the Nobles. The route of the parade was through North Main, Capitol and Green streets to the Auditorium, where the curtain went up at 7 p. m., on "Little Miss Fix-It," a happy hilarity in two acts, with Miss Lloyd in the title role.

At the conclusion of the play the members took special trains for home.

London Plays a New Game.

There is a new game which sportsmen are playing. To travel by train the greatest distance in twenty-four hours—on paper. For it is played with a Bradshaw. The astonishing idea of studying Bradshaw for pleasure recalls Lord Chatham's hobby. Lord Chatham boasted that he had read Bailey's dictionary through twice. And there was another genius who found consolation in queer literary fields. Lord Chief Justice Cockburn had no need of the new novel. Here read Euclid. "Even now," he said, "I often read some pages of it for pleasure." There is no accounting for literary tastes, as the man said who read Bradshaw and Bailey and Euclid.—London Chronicle.

Mrs. Fairchild's Distinction.

Mrs. George W. Fairchild is among the best gowned women in the congressional set in Washington. One of her dinner gowns is a model on which the ceremonial robes of the summer will be built. It is a trained robe of heavy, cream satin, with panels of blue chiffon extending back, front and on the sides from the low-cut bodice and ending at the hem in tassels of crystal and cut steel beads. The diamond necklace which Mrs. Fairchild wears with many of her ceremonial gowns follows the prevailing style in resembling a delicate pattern of lace. It is about three inches in width and fits as snugly as a glove.

Strive to Be Kind.

Is not the sin of sins unkindness? Because of it tears flow, hopes die, friendships are strained, and hearts well nigh broken. Not to be kind widens the breach between rich and poor, labor and capital, the fortunate and the unfortunate. Just to be kind heartens the discouraged, strengthens the weak, and makes heavy loads easy to carry. Be kind to those about you. It costs you little or nothing and is the best investment you can make. The returns will come back in compound interest. Your employees, your friends, your household, even your foes, will respond to kindness.—J. Wilbur Chapman.

Against Bogus Cripples.

The bona-fide maimed and lame beggars of Paris streets have formed an association for the defense of their privileges against the impostors who encroach on their beats. The president has been received by M. Bourgeois, the minister of public works, who promises to consider their demand of a certificate after medical examination. This will hinder, they maintain, an honorable profession from being dragged by bogus cripples, who are seldom brought to justice.

Never Sell His Horses.

It is the proud boast of Senator Martine of New Jersey that in all the years he has been farming he has never sold a horse. When a horse gets too old to work he retires it on full rations and lets it just loaf around the pasture until it dies.

NEW CASTLE

For New Castle to be visited by a frost in June was an incident not scheduled to appear but it eventuated just the same. This year has been one of extraordinary climatic vagaries. If there are any records of any sort that have not been broken this year let them stand forth and be smashed. All high water marks are being washed away. Old Sol's game of hide and seek has sadly marred the plans of many pleasure seekers. Everybody is hoping for beautiful June weather till the graduations and class days and class picnics are over.

THE TRUE TEST

Tried in Portsmouth. It has stood the Test.

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Portsmouth. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

Clinton R. Hurd, 136 Hill street, Portsmouth, N. H., says: "I have no hesitation in verifying the statement I gave for publication in 1905 recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, as the cure they effected has been permanent. I suffered from sharp pains in my back and was often unable to arise from a chair without assistance. I felt tired all the time and there was soreness across my loins. The contents of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained at Pillsbury's Pharmacy, brought me great relief and I continued taking this remedy until I was cured. I now recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity."

CEMENTKNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
DEFEAT CATHOLIC UNIONJ. Trayers the Whole Thing With Eleven Strike Outs.

The Knights of Columbus defeated the Catholic Union in a one sided game on Monday evening. The Catholic Union were away off their game, while J. Trayers, the star artist of the Knights, was back in form and he was invincible, striking out eleven men and otherwise playing the game. Heffernan caught his best game of the season. The P. C. U. started in with Morris on the mound, but after he had paced two and had been hit for a single filling the bases, he was changed over to third and Kabalka took his place, but he did not pitch a very good game, being hit hard. The general impression is that it was a mistake to pull out Morris, who is capable of pitching good ball. The Knights played a good game, although they did not have much to do as J. Trayers was the whole thing. O'Brien made a pretty catch in left of a foul ball and he battled well getting single and a home run, the ball shooting by shortstop at speed sufficient to roll it into deep left and he easily cleared the base before the ball was fielded in by T. Lynskey.

The Knights practically put the game away in the first inning when the entire team came to the bat and five runs were sent over the plate. They scored four more in the fourth. The P. C. U. were never dangerous, scoring two runs in the fourth on a wild heave of McCarthy which went past Heffernan.

First Inning.

The P. C. U. were up and W. Lynskey pushed up a pop fly for Flanagan, Hoffman and Kabalka fanned.

The Knights started with Reardon being out on a fly to T. Lynskey. Mates was passed and was safe at second on Frederick's wild heave to Hoffman. McCarthy was passed and O'Brien singled filled the bases. Heffernan gave Kabalka a chance and he fumbled the ball and was late to get Mates at home. Hero Morris went to third and Kabalka went into the box and Flanagan drove the first ball at M. Timmons and he let it go through him and McCarthy scored. McWilliams singled into left and the ball got past Lynskey, who when he recovered swung wild to third and in the mix-up O'Brien, Heffernan and Flanagan scored and McWilliams was on third. A Trayer put a weak grounder to Kabalka and McWilliams tried to score and he was caught by Frederick. J. Trayers fanned.

Second Inning.

The P. C. U. were out in order. Frederick on a bunt that Heffernan was ahead of him to first with T. Lynskey fanned and O'Brien made a pretty catch of Goodwin's foul along the third base bleachers.

The Knights also failed to count. Reardon was on with a single to center which he stretched into second base on Goodwin's slow fielding, but he was thrown out at third by Frederick. Mates was thrown out by Morris at first. McCarthy was safe on a single over second that Hoffman made a good effort to get, and O'Brien was out to Goodwin.

Third Inning.

T. Timmons was there with the strike out. Morris was thrown out by Flanagan and M. Timmons singled. Reardon making a pretty attempt and did stop the ball, but it was too fast to handle. W. Lynskey fanned.

The Knights did not get a man on bases. Heffernan was thrown out by Hoffman, Flanagan sent one down the first base line and he was out to T. Timmons unassisted. McWilliams was thrown out by M. Timmons.

Fourth Inning.

The P. C. U. made two runs in this inning. Hoffman singled past J. Trayers, and stole second. Kabalka was safe when McWilliams tried to take a fly that Reardon was under. Frederick and T. Lynskey fanned. Goodwin singled and Hoffman scored and McCarthy threw wild to Heffernan to get Hoffman and Kabalka scored. T. Timmons fanned. Heffernan dropping the ball but throwing his man out at first.

The Knights added four more to their total in their half. A. Trayers was safe on T. Lynskey's dropping dropping his fly in left. J. Trayers singled over second and Goodwin in fielding the ball fell down. A. Trayers scored. Reardon was out on a fly to Kabalka. Mates drove a hard grounder at Morris who broke it, the ball rolling over to the bleachers and J. Trayers scored. McCarthy was out on a fly to Hoffman and O'Brien smashed a hard grounder between short and second and it rolled way beyond the crowd in left center and O'Brien scored with Mates ahead of him. Heffernan ended the inning with a hard drive that Lynskey was under in left.

Score—K. C. 9; P. C. U. 2.

Swedish Athletes Who Will Represent
Their Country in the Olympic Games Whose Chances are Well Thought of STOCKHOLM, June 11.—With victory in the javelin throwing practically conceded to Sweden because of the prowess of Lemming in that line, Wilsson and Tornos will try to grab off the honors for their country in the shot putting, discus throwing and distance running events. In London in 1908 Lemming won the javelin throwing contest with a mark of 179 feet 10 1/2 inches. He had previously won this event in the games held at Athens in 1906, when his throw was 175 feet 6 inches. Great things are expected at this year's games from Wilsson, who puts the shot and throws the discus equally well, and also from Tornos, who has some splendid performance.

VACATION GUIDE TO NEW ENGLAND

The many attractive places for vacation visits in New England are beautifully described in the booklet issued by the Boston and Maine Railroad for the season of 1912. It is called "New England Vacation Resorts," and sets forth with letter press, pictures and maps the summer resorts of the coast, lake and mountain region reached by this extensive railroad system in six states. The seashore resorts, of which there are many, include the north shore—Nahant, Swampscott, Marblehead, Beverly, where President Taft lives in the summer, Magnolia, Gloucester and Annisquam—in Massachusetts; Hampton, Rye, New Castle, Portsmouth and the Isles of Shoals in New Hampshire; Kittery, York, Kennebunkport, Wells, Ogunquit, Old Orchard, Scarborough, Elizabeth, Portland and Casco Bay in Maine.

Of the mountain regions of New England the booklet says, "In the rugged beauty of their scenic aspect the White Mountains of New Hampshire are without a rival in eastern America. This region ought to be visited by every American who is proud of his country. You will not find any place in the whole of America that offers the vacationist more zestful excursions than the White Mountains. The star attraction in New Hampshire's mountain park is Mount Washington, which stands sentinel over the Presidential range. "The third great division of the New England vacation country, the lake and inland section, includes the mountain lakes of New Hampshire—Winnesaukee, Asquam, Sunapee, Dublin and others, with their innumerable colonies of summer boarders, campers and cottagers; the delightful farming sections of the Merrimack and Connecticut valleys; the undulating region around Mount Monadnock, central and western Massachusetts and the famous Deerfield Valley.

A copy of the New England Vacation Resorts will be mailed free by the Vacation Bureau, Room 354 South Station, Boston, Mass.

For PORTSMOUTH and PORTSMOUTH'S INTERESTS

Tuesday, June 11, 1912.

The Washington Star says the people who insist that Charles W. Morse is under an implied contract to play the star role at an early funeral engagement would regard it as adding insult to injury if he were to pass a medical examination for a good sized life insurance policy.

The Portland Argus says: Long before the Colonel came out as a third-term candidate, and when he was still reiterating his promise never under any circumstances to seek or accept another nomination, he was unable to conceal the object of his consuming ambition from many who studied the man. In 1910 the Countess Tolstol had an interview with the Emperor and, in an account then published, quoted him as saying he had heard from the Kaiser, the King of England, and people who had met Roosevelt intimately, that he was a strange compound of imperialism and democracy whose ambition it was to be elected President for life. Little attention was paid to this remark at the time, but it becomes significant today in the light of his third term candidacy, and the methods he uses in reaching for the nomination, methods involving treachery and demagoguery of peculiar baseness.

The New York Sun says it seems plain enough that we shall all have to turn vegetarians, if it doesn't cost too much. Beef is becoming a table delicacy, like goose liver and larks' tongues. Apologists for vaulting prices say there is a shortage of 50 per cent in shipments of live cattle from the west. Quotations are going up as fast as mercury. To have fat on their ribs steers must consume a bushel of corn a day, and corn is 85 cents a bushel. Farmers cannot afford the outlay. If consumers can't eat beef the steers themselves are on short commons.

The trouble seems to be that everything that nourishes both man and beast is scarce and high beyond any precedent. Man, unfortunately, cannot satisfy his hunger on grass, and if he could the area devoted to grass would be reported inadequate. It is an area of expanding prices, and for every advance a reason is automatically given. The problem baffles all that can be made out of it is that nature as well as the packers and retailers are against the consumer.

The Boston Transcript says the hollowness of the Roosevelt contest in Alabama seems to have awakened the press and public to what both should have realized long ago, that the third-term candidate's pretensions to many delegations were set up simply to make trouble. The Roosevelt Colorado delegation, for instance, was recently chosen in an improvised "Progressive Republican" convention called weeks after the regular Republican convention had adjourned. The Colorado Republicans at their legally called and held-off State convention chose a Taft delegation. The Roosevelt men were fairly beaten in that convention and the contesting delegation, now in Chicago, was devised for no other purpose than to create dissension. The Colorado case can very easily be settled on its merits, for it has no merits at all. Similarly unstable is the claim of the Roosevelt men to the fourteen delegates from the State of Washington. The Washington Republican State Convention was summoned to meet in the regular way, the city in which it was to be held was designated but not the hall. On the slight pretext that this was an imperfect call the Roosevelt delegates, discovering in advance that they were beaten, held a convention of their own and chose fourteen men to go to Chicago to contest the seats of the regulars. It will not be necessary to resort to steam roller methods to turn down other contesting delegations than those already mentioned.

Bird's-Eye Views.

Some senators possibly have no personal resentment toward Mr. Lorimer, but consider him the only medium through which the Illinois legislature can be properly rebuked.

Boston offered Dr. Wiley the position of chairman of its health board. The Massachusetts metropolis aspires to be healthy as well as wealthy and wise.

Theodore Roosevelt has readjusted the old question to "What are our ex-presidents going to do with us?"

Keep your sorrows and your tribulations to yourself. It is only happiness and joy that should be syndicated.

Congress is to investigate the rise in meat. That is always a good move when everything else is loaded with dynamite.

"No dollar should earn a dollar," says Mr. Hayward. That is, you must eat your dollar, instead of setting it to work.

Who says that patriotism is dead, when William Cox Redfield of Brooklyn, N. Y., is willing to take the office of president?

An advertisement of a lawn mower on the market says "A boy can run it." The more important question to answer is, "Will he?"

If the old-time oratory that once rang through the halls of the United States Capitol is not brilliantly revived it will not be for lack of energy on the part of Senator Palmer.

The report that a magazine went broke backing the Peary exploration, as a literature venture will give Dr. Cook a chance for at least one small chuckle.

The Boston Herald says: "Troops to Texas, marines to Guantanamo, notes to Nicaragua, Uncle Sam raps for order with many gavel." How about Chicago and Baltimore?

Congressman Thomas of Kentucky has been having a tussle with two reporters. No little incident like this will attract any attention after the Chicago convention casualties begin to come in.

Tom Watson never hunts trouble. He makes it up for himself as he goes along.

The Mormon church, though credited with great political influence, always avoids becoming unduly conspicuous in the earlier stages of a campaign.

Mr. Barnes of New York is one of those politicians who refuse to cherish any favorite son sentiment whatever.

SAVING $10,000,000 FROM NAVAL JUNK

A "scrap expert" in the Navy Department has effected economies in the utilization of waste material and through abolishing graft in navy yard junk which are expected to amount to $10,000,000 a year.

That is 3 1/2 per cent of the $300,000,000 which Senator Aldrich said could be saved by running the government on sound business principles. It is not a large amount of itself, but the important thing is that such a saving should be possible in a single branch of one government department through the introduction of factory methods of economy.

The man who is effecting this salvage of waste for the navy has done the same thing for railroads. There are fields for the exercise of talents like his in the scrap heaps and among the official deadwood of other government departments.—New York World.

This is one good reason for more civilian authority in the management of navy yards.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Wants Credit Given to Another

Editor Herald:

Having read an article in the Monday Portsmouth Herald, concerning the three girls (which should be two girls) that were in a row boat in the harbor Sunday afternoon, I wish to put the story as it should be. I do not see as the sailors of the North Carolina should be given credit which is not due them.

Give it to the one to which it belongs. The girls were on Clark's Island and wishing to draw attention to the boat from the landing and rowed out where they lost the oar lock.

They drifted about two hundred yards from the landing, the sailors went after them in another row boat that looked and when they reached the girls their boat capsized. Mr. Black of New Castle went to them with his motor boat and towed them back to the island. He is the one who should get what credit is coming.

As a constant reader of the Herald, I wish to commend your paper for all the good work accomplished in maintaining the Portsmouth & Exeter Street railway. This is only one of many things that The Herald has played an important part in for the interests of Portsmouth and the people are beginning to realize what can be done in the columns of a live local paper. The persistent efforts carried out by The Herald when everything looked dark, and when considerable cold water was being thrown on the project, demonstrates more plainly your good work.

CURRENT OPINION

BY ROBERT GRANT, In Scribner's.

THE APPETITE FOR PUBLICITY

PERHAPS the most signal change in our sensibilities is the growth of the appetite for publicity; a more or less world-wide by-product of the brotherhood of man, and partly due to much ampler advertising facilities and means of quick communication, but nowhere more conspicuous than in our native civilization. To be sure its seed is the noble human craving for glory. But so strangely streaked has the original pure flower become by successive graftings, induced by a confused sense of values, that renown in the popular mind today is largely synonymous with the ability to attract attention. Indeed, so prolific is the contemporary hothouse horticulture of greatness, that at the mention of a familiar name one often is at a loss to remember whether it represents distinguished service or monumental chicanery. Though it might be thought cynical to assert that the first requisite in any field of human endeavor is a capable press agent, few will deny that the once prized and graceful flower, individual privacy, appears old-fashioned to the younger generation.

That none but essentially vulgar people would court publicity regarding private entertainments used to be taken for granted, and would be still if it were not for the testimony of any editor whom one chooses to consult that a considerable portion of the information concerning social affairs set forth in the newspapers is volunteered by those who figure in them. Do you know the Wilmet Browns? If so, you will recognize them as an agreeable family with fashionable proclivities, but not exceptional in any way. Yet their rather unimportant doings are constantly heralded in the press; made at times the subject of a special dispatch. A long ago grew weary of reading of their comings and goings, but have steadily refrained from harboring the suspicion that they connive at the publicity. Yet it was a staggering blow to me to hear one of my granddaughters say the other day that she envied the Wilmet Browns and would like to be equally conspicuous if she could.

GREENLAND.

MRS. GREEN'S VERSION OF THE ACCIDENT

Editor The Herald:

The local newspaper reports have characterized this automobile accident as "unavoidable," and one Boston newspaper has printed a story that it was my car that ran into Mr. Horton's.

Both these newspaper statements are incorrect. The accident was not unavoidable. I was driving my car on the Gravelly Ridge road toward Portsmouth up a grade about in front of Mr. Pray's house, and there is a steep embankment on the right hand side of the road as I was going. The road is a straightaway. I saw the cars of Mr. Holmes and Mr. Horton coming toward me very fast. Mr. Horton was evidently racing by Mr. Holmes. Mr. Holmes' car was on his right hand side of the road and Mr. Horton's car was in the centre. I swung over on my right as far as the steep embankment would permit and shut off power. Mr. Holmes went by me in safety, then Mr. Horton apparently lost control of his car because of his great rate of speed and crashed into the front of my machine. The road was amply wide enough for three cars properly driven to have passed abreast. For minutes after the collision the engine of Mr. Horton's car was still racing.

TWO NEW POLICE OFFICERS APPOINTED

Frederick Schrider and John Beasley Made Regulars by Police Commissioners.

At a meeting of the Police Commission on Monday afternoon two regular officers were appointed. They were Frederick Schrider and John Beasley, and they will be sworn in and begin duty as soon as they qualify.

The appointments are good ones, for both are young men who are well qualified for the work. Mr. Beasley is a long rangy fellow, who has acted for the past year or more as turnkey at the local jail, and he has shown an ability to handle the criminal class in fine shape.

Mr. Schrider is a sailmaker by trade and he is a powerful built young man who will be able to care for himself in any mix-up and he is sure to make a very good officer. The appointments are a great addition to the force as the work for the police is increasing every day, especially in certain sections of the city.

On Saturday night, or rather Sunday morning, about two o'clock, a party of four marines coming from Portsmouth via the bridge, thought they would have some fun when they reached Kittery Junction, so with beer bottles they started in demolishing the electric lights along the road. They smashed every one from Portsmouth bridge to the navy yard bridge, leaving that part of the town in total darkness, besides making a big disturbance all along the route. It is said the guilty ones have been found. It required nearly all day Monday for the electric light men to repair the damage done.

RAILROAD NOTES

The Boston & Maine road has issued a neat pocket folder timetable of the Concord and Manchester electric branch, the first of the kind in several years.

Jesse E. Billings of Kittery Point, for several years station agent for the Boston & Maine railroad at Salmon Falls, and later at Biddeford, on the eastern division, was on Monday placed in charge of the station at North Hampton, succeeding Herman L. Marston who resigned after many years of faithful service.

Henry Desbro of this city has been appointed foreman of the section of the Boston & Maine at Salisbury. For several years he has been connected with the spare crew at this station and the appointment is certainly a good one. He has already assumed charge and taken a residence in that town.

Inasmuch as school buildings were erected as recently as 1906, the fact that the parish is practically free of debt today is striking evidence of the loyalty and generosity of the parishioners of St. John's.

MARINES FIRED UPON BY CUBAN REBELS

Trouble is Feared in All Parts of the Island--Two Battleships Ordered to Havana.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, June 10.—A company of United States marines, commanded by Capt. Edward B. Manning, engaged in guarding El Cuero mines, was attacked at 1 this morning by a force of insurgents firing from the hills. There were no casualties among the marines and the loss of the insurgents is unknown.

A force of insurgents last night burned some cane fields on the sugar plantations of Hatillo.

A detachment of volunteers was at- tacked by insurgents last night, three miles from Santiago. Several of the rebels are reported to have been wounded.

Gen. Juan Mario Menocal, formerly president of the Veterans' Association, with four other generals who fought in the war of independence, arrived here last night and offered Gen. Montenegro, the commander-in-chief of the Cubans, to furnish 2000 men for active service. Gen. Montenegro replied that he considered their aid unnecessary at present, but he may accept it later.

The Cuban rebels have been very active in the neighborhood of El Cuero mines, belonging to the Ponape Manganese Company, for some time past.

Speaker Ferrera of the Cuban House of Representatives, one of the first lieutenants of President Gomez, will have a conference today with Secretary Knox, at which the situation will be thoroughly canvassed. The speaker is non-communicative about his mission. It has been reported that his visit is in connection with a loan from the Cuban Government's use in putting down the insurrection.

It seems that the events of this week probably will decide if the military force of 5000 men, now waiting to move to Cuba, shall be ordered on.

GOOD "WELSH RABBIT"

VALUE OF THIS DELICACY LIES IN THE MAKING.

English People, Through Their Fondness for Toast and Cheese, Are Expert in Its Compounding—Ingredients and Preparation.

The English are inordinately fond of both toast and cheese, so it is no wonder that they should have originated that epicurean compound known as the Welsh rabbit. And, of course, the delectable toasted English mutton is of the British Isles.

Welsh Rabbit.—For two people grate from a third to a half a pound of American cheese on the bottom of a frying basket—grated in this way you can use a cheese that is beautifully soft. Knead half a tablespoon or a bit more of butter with a wooden spoon in a dish over hot water until it begins to sizzle, add a quarter of a teaspoon of paprika, a pinch of salt, and tablespoon of milk. Mix all thoroughly and when the combination is boiling turn in the cheese. Stir constantly in one direction until cheese is melted to the consistency of thin cream, gradually adding two or three tablespoons more of milk, taking care that the mixture does not become lumpy or stringy. Finally put in a spot of as much as a half teaspoon of made mustard, however much suits the taste from considerable to none at all. Keep on stirring until bubbles appear. Serve on toast which is ready on a piping hot plate. If beer is used instead of milk in making this rabbit it should be very flat—have stood open at least half an hour.

This is an adaptation from a modern English recipe and if carefully made is as silky and soft as can be, and will not give trouble to even a sensitive digestion.

Old Dr. Kitchiner's recipe for this delicacy he gives under the name of Toast and Cheese.—Cut a slice of bread about half an inch thick, pare off the crust, and toast it very slightly on one side so as to brown it without making it hard or burning it. Cut a slice of cheese (good, fat, mellow Cheshire cheese or double Gloucester is better than poor, thin, single Gloucester), a quarter of an inch thick, not so big as the bread by half an inch on each side. Pare off the rind, cut out all the specks and often parts and lay it on the toast—bread on the cheese toaster. Carefully watch it that it does not burn, and stir it with a spoon to prevent a scellie forming on the surface. Have ready a good mustard, pepper and salt. If you observe the directions here given, the cheese will get mellow and will be uniformly done, and the bread crisp and soft and will well deserve its ancient appellation of a "Rare Bit."—Jane Eddington in Chicago Tribune.

"Love Me, Love My Dog."

The women who believe in these sentiments will be made happy by one of the new luxurious valises in which to place the pampered pet while traveling. The valises are lined with white goat fur and are real nests of comfort. A series of holes in the side admit plenty of fresh air, while at the other side of the valise is a species of grill or wire lattice work which enables the dog to see all that is passing. Usually the valise is of leather, with its owner's name and address on an engraved brass label, and there are either handles to enable it to be carried easily in the hand.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—American marines will be available for service in Havana before noon today.

The armed cruiser Washington and the battleship Rhode Island, which steamed out from Key West early this morning, under orders sent from Washington late last night, are expected to make the run across the Strait of Florida to the Cuban capital in about six hours.

Each of these ships, in addition to her regular complement of 66 marines, carries an extra complement of 125, including officers. They would only be landed in the Cuban capital, of course, in case of dire emergency, in which event the bluejackets of both ships also would be available.

The gravity with which this Government regards the situation is indicated by the fact that Rear Admiral Osterhaus, commander of the Atlantic fleet, is aboard his flagship, the Washington, to observe conditions in Havana at first hand. The remainder of the third division of the fleet remains at Key West, and can join the flagship in a few hours.

The mine planter San Francisco, formerly a cruiser, leaves Annapolis today with a full complement of midshipmen aboard and will join the ships at Key West. The first division of the Atlantic fleet, the Massachusetts, Utah, North Dakota, Florida and Delaware, also leave Annapolis today with midshipmen aboard. While their destination is now Cuba, there is no assurance that the Navy Department may not order

CITIZENS COMMITTEE REPORT AND ORGANIZE

Have Agreed to Purchase Road to Greenland Parade and B. & M. Will Help Out.

A meeting of the Citizens' Committee on the Portsmouth and Exeter street railway, was held at the Mayor's office on Monday evening, and at that time Mayor Badger, who with Mr. Seybold had been in Boston in conference with Vice President T. F. Byrnes of the Boston and Maine railroad, reported that after the situation had been explained to Mr. Byrnes he agreed that the Boston and Maine would relay the tracks which have been torn up at an expense not to exceed $1,000.

President Belden, of the New Hampshire Traction company, agreed to distribute the rails back where they came from and the retention of the road to Greenland parade is assured.

There is still a balance of $1,500 which the committee will seek to raise and it is expected that this can be done in a short time. The committee organized with Mr. Edwin Seybold as chairman and Mayor Badger as treasurer, Harry T. Wendell, secretary.

The next move will be a petition on the part of the Boston and Maine railroad to the Supreme Court for an extension of their electric road franchise from the Plains to the Greenland parade. The Public Service Commission will also be petitioned for a lay out and in this matter it is expected that there will be but very little delay and as soon as the legal steps are taken the road will be operated as a part of the legal road.

Board of Trade to Assist

The Master Mechanics' Association of the navy yard met the Board of Trade at a joint gathering on Monday evening on the matter of constructing a collier at the Portsmouth navy yard. It is understood that the Board were decided enthusiastic on the project and guaranteed the association every aid possible in helping toward the plan. Every board of trade in this section will be asked to take a part in the movement which up to date has required no small amount of time and hard work on the part of the Mechanics association.

They are on the Way.

The employees of the machinery division, machine shop have become somewhat anxious over the long promised trout feed by the man who did the hike to Folly pond and back. They have concluded that the fish the said were coming are still on the way.

Getting Busy in Cuba.

The U. S. marines who were attacked by a force of insurgents at Cuero mines in Cuba are the battalion which left this yard under command of Captain E. B. Manwaring of this station.

Beef Makes Trouble

Mare Island officials have learned that Assistant Secretary of the Navy Winthrop has asked for a report from the officers of the navy yard Philadelphia, Pa., on the rejection there on the night of May 23 of 26,000 lbs. out of 28,000 lbs. of fresh meat delivered to the Prairie when she was about to sail for Guantanamo, Cuba, with the expeditionary force. If the official reports show that the meat was actually unfit to use it is expected that drastic action will be taken by the Navy Department in regard to the contractors who furnished it. M. Myers and Sons, of Philadelphia.

Still Working for a Boy

One boy for work in the joiner shop of the hull division is wanted by the labor board.

Vessel Movements

The Minnesota, the Mississippi, Missouri, the Ohio and the Solace are at Guantanamo.

The Prairie is at Manzanillo. The Potomac is at Newport.

The Maryland has left Port Townsend for Portland, Ore.

The Paducah has left Daiquiri for Santiago de Cuba.

The Eagle has left Guantanamo for Daiquiri.

The Sylph has left Washington for Hampton Roads.

The San Francisco has left Norfolk for Annapolis.

POLICE NEWS

Deputy Hurley went to Dover this forenoon to bring Mary Kruger to this city. She was arrested by the Dover police and is charged with the larceny of $25 from a family where she has been employed. She denies any knowledge of the theft. The court will hear her case this afternoon.

The appointment of two new men to the police department, only gives the force one more man. The appointment of one of the two simply fills the place of Officer Seymour, who has resigned.

Police Officer Doherty, arrested Thomas Fisherty this morning on Bow street. Fisherty was just over from York Beach and was ready to start something when the police got him.

The new appointments to the force will leave many disappointed applicants for the position which is understood to be twenty-six in number. The original plan was to appoint only one man to fill the place of Officer Seymour.

The new officers, Deasley and Schrieder, will go on duty Wednesday. Deasley will be assigned to the Creek district and Schrieder to the Middle street beat.

COLLECTION OF PAPER

When the collection of paper is again taken up by the public works department the same will be made in a large wagon built especially for that purpose. The vehicle known as a Breck wagon will be fitted with a rack and it is thought that with the same all collections can be made in a day. Supt. Barrett and Assistant Superintendent Ridge went to Boston today to arrange for the purchase of the wagon.

at all. Keep on stirring until mashes appear. Serve on toast which is ready on a piping hot plate. If beer used instead of milk in making this rabbit it should be very flat—have stood open at least half an hour.

This is an adaptation from a modern English recipe and if carefully made is as silky and soft as can be, and will not give trouble to even a sensitive digestion.

Old Dr. Kitchener's recipe for this delicacy he gives under the name of Toast and Cheese.—Cut a slice of bread about half an inch thick, pare off the crust, and toast it very slightly on one side so as to brown it without making it hard or burning it.

Cut a slice of cheese (good, fat, mellow Cheshire cheese or double Gloucester is better than poor, thin, angle Gloucester), a quarter of an inch thick, not so big as the bread by half an inch on each side. Pare off the rind, cut out all the specks and rotten parts and lay it on the toast—d bread on the cheese toaster. Carefully watch it that it does not burn, and stir it with a spoon to prevent a yellow forming on the surface. Have ready a good mustard, pepper and salt. If you observe the directions here given, the cheese will get mellow and will be uniformly done, and the bread crisp and soft and will well deserve its ancient appellation of a "Rare Bit."—Jane Eddington in Chicago Tribune.
